11 Inquiry Concerning a Judge)

12 No. 13)

A N S W E R

13)

14 TO: COMMISSION ON JUDICIAL QUALIFICATIONS

15

16 COMES NOW the HONORABLE JUDGE JAMES J. McCARTNEY and 17 answering the charges contained therein, admits, denies and 18 alleges as follows:

19

20

I

21 Answering Count One, JUDGE McCARTNEY denies generally
22 and specifically each and every allegation contained therein.

23

II

25 Answering Count One, Paragraph A, People v. LaCroix
26 (CR 94649), JUDGE McCARTNEY admits as follows:

27

28

A. JUDGE McCARTNEY did direct Mrs. LaCroix to "shut up."

1 B. JUDGE McCARTNEY did order Mrs. LaCroix to leave
2 the Courtroom.

3 C. JUDGE McCARTNEY did order her confined to the 4 County Jail for five days for contempt of Court.

5 D. JUDGE McCARTNEY did state substantially "five
6 days in jail right now."

7 E. JUDGE McCARTNEY did call Mr. LaCroix a "liar"
8 and a "cheat" and told him that he was lying.

9 F. JUDGE McCARTNEY did pronounce sentence upon
10 defendant, Mr. LaCroix.

11 G. JUDGE McCARTNEY did tell the defendant,
12 Mr. LaCroix, that he would sentence him to 180 days if he kept 13 interrupting.

14 That aside from said express admissions,
15 JUDGE McCARTNEY denies generally and specifically each and
16 every allegation contained therein.

17
18 AS AND FOR A FIRST, DISTINCT AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE,
19 JUDGE McCARTNEY ALLEGES AS FOLLOWS:

20 A. That on March 24, 1971, JUDGE McCARTNEY had the 21 case of People v. LaCroix for the purposes of probation and 22 sentence hearing. That among the spectators was Mrs. LaCroix
23 with the couple's five children ranging in ages from approximately 24 seven to twelve years of age. That due to the highly derogatory
25 material in the probation report in regards to the children's 26 father (Mr. LaCroix), JUDGE McCARTNEY felt it would be inappro-
27 priate for the children to be in Court and therefore directed
28 Mrs. LaCroix to take the children outside the Courtroom.

1 B. JUDGE McCARTNEY allowed defendant, among other
2 things, to discuss, item by item, the prior record contained in 3 his probation report. During the discussion with the defendant,
4 Mrs. LaCroix had come back into the Courtroom and seated herself
5 behind her husband in the portion of the Courtroom usually 6 reserved for the party litigants and their counsels. While 7 further questioning the defendant, Mrs. LaCroix persisted in 8 interrupting the proceedings by making direct comments to the 9 Court. At this time, JUDGE McCARTNEY stated to Mrs. LaCroix
10 that if she had anything to say, she could say it at this time.
11 Mrs. LaCroix did address the Court at this time. JUDGE McCARTNEY
12 then advised Mrs. LaCroix that he wished to discuss further 13 matters with her husband and directed her to remain quiet.
14 Mrs. LaCroix persisted in further interruptions at which time
15 JUDGE McCARTNEY told her to "shut up." Mrs. LaCroix continued
16 to make various statements and continued to interrupt the 17 proceedings despite these admonitions.

18 C. JUDGE McCARTNEY then directed Mrs. LaCroix to 19 leave the Courtroom. As Mrs. LaCroix was leaving the Courtroom
20 reluctantly, she turned and looked at JUDGE McCARTNEY in a
21 glowering and insolent manner. JUDGE McCARTNEY then directed 22 Mrs. LaCroix to return before the bench so that he might make 23 inquiry into the meaning of her insolent manner and her other
24 conduct while in his Court. Mrs. LaCroix refused to return
25 before the bench even after repeated directives by 26 JUDGE McCARTNEY to do so. At this time, JUDGE McCARTNEY did
27 find Mrs. LaCroix guilty of contempt of Court and ordered her
28 confined to the County Jail for five days.

1 D. The defendant, Mr. LaCroix, himself admitted that
2 he had lied. During the process of sentencing, the defendant,
3 he continued to make interruptions and at this point
4 JUDGE McCARTNEY stated to the defendant that he would sentence
5 him to 180 days if he kept interrupting. The record will show
6 that at the supplemental probation hearing on April 7, 1971,
7 defendant's sentence was modified wherein he would serve a
8 total of 30 days.

9

10

III

11

 Answering Count One, Paragraph B (Joseph Clair Meyers, 12 TR 80985), JUDGE McCARTNEY admits as follows:

13

 A. That he sentenced defendant to three years
14 probation on the condition that he attend ten Project
15 Awareness sessions and pay a fine of $182.00.

16

 B. That he advised the defendant to "get in the 17 Court, get in this Courtroom or I'll have you arrested and 18 brought into Court."

19

 C. That he directed the bailiff to "get a Court
20 Reporter."

21

 D. That a plea of guilty that was heretofore
22 entered by defendant, Mr. Meyers, and the sentence attendant
23 thereto was ordered vacated in the interest of justice.

24

 That aside from said express admissions,
25 JUDGE McCARTNEY denies generally and specifically each and
26 every allegation contained therein.

27

28

AS AND FOR A FIRST, DISTINCT AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE,

1 JUDGE McCARTNEY ALLEGES AS FOLLOWS:

2 On April 29, 1971, the defendant Meyers was advised
3 of all of his constitutional rights, explaining to said
4 defendant the blood alcohol results would not be run and 5 therefore were not available unless and until the defendant
6 plead not guilty. In that event, the defendant would be 7 entitled to all discovery including the blood alcohol test
8 results. The .10% blood alcohol presumption of being under 9 the influence was explained to defendant and although the 10 defendant expressed an ambivalent attitude as to his guilt or 11 innocence, he requested the Court to enter his plea of guilty.
12 The defendant further volunteered to the Court that he had 13 been drinking and driving and admitted his driving ability had 14 been impaired to an appreciable degree, and therefore his plea
15 of guilty and the sentence was entered accordingly. Subsequently,
16 Defendant Meyers approached JUDGE McCARTNEY in the hallway
17 outside the Courtroom, again inquiring as to his blood alcohol
18 test results and he questioned as to whether he would be found
19 not guilty if the blood alcohol test results showed that it
20 was less than .10%. JUDGE McCARTNEY advised the defendant
21 Meyers that all of this had been previously explained to him
22 in the Courtroom; that the hallway in the Court Building was 23 not a place to discuss these matters, and in any event, he was 24 not in a position to advise the defendant Meyers as an 25 attorney. Defendant Meyers insisted upon asking questions and 26 expressed his doubt that he was in fact guilty of the charge.
27 Defendant asked that "if my blood alcohol test would be run and 28 comes out less than .10%, could I come in and set the plea of

1 guilty aside?" At this time, JUDGE McCARTNEY directed the 2 defendant Meyers to enter the Courtroom for the purpose of 3 setting aside the plea of guilty and the sentence and to set the 4 matter for trial either by jury or Court. Instead of proceeding
5 into the Courtroom as directed by JUDGE McCARTNEY, Defendant
6 Meyers insisted upon asking further questions and advice of 7 JUDGE McCARTNEY as to what he thought as to Defendant Meyers'
8 guilt or innocence. Under said circumstances, JUDGE McCARTNEY
9 repeated his request of Defendant Meyers at least three or four 10 times to enter the Courtroom to set aside the plea heretofore
11 entered. Upon his continuous and repeated questioning and 12 seeking of advice, JUDGE McCARTNEY at that time ordered Defendant
13 Meyers to enter the Courtroom and if he refused to do so, he 14 would be arrested and brought into the Court for the purposes
15 of setting aside the plea. Defendant Meyers did ultimately 16 enter the Courtroom and the plea of guilty and the sentence was 17 set aside and the matter set for trial.

18
19 AS AND FOR A SECOND, DISTINCT AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE,
20 JUDGE McCARTNEY ALLEGES AS FOLLOWS:

21 The Commission on Judicial Qualifications does not
22 have jurisdiction to proceed any further pertaining to this
23 charge in that it has not complied with Rule 904(b), Title
24 Three, Division I of CALIFORNIA RULES OF COURT in any of its 25 particulars.

26

1 therein.

3 Answering Count Two, Paragraph A (Mrs. Carol Perry),
4 JUDGE McCARTNEY denies generally and specifically each and every 5 allegation contained therein.

6 AS AND FOR A FIRST, DISTINCT AND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE,
7 JUDGE McCARTNEY ALLEGES AS FOLLOWS:

8 That on March 24, 1971, during the process of finding 9 Mrs. LaCroix guilty of contempt of Court and sentencing her to 10 five days in the County Jail and while directing the bailiff,
11 John Finck, to put Mrs. LaCroix in custody, JUDGE McCARTNEY
12 distinctly heard an outcry from his clerk, Mrs. Carol Ann Perry,
13 to the effect, "Oh, no, not that!" JUDGE McCARTNEY at said
14 time asked Mrs. Perry at least five times to apologize and 15 advised her that in the absence of her apology he would find 16 her in contempt of Court. She refused to apologize. After the 17 repeated refusals of Mrs. Perry to apologize, JUDGE McCARTNEY
18 then advised Mrs. Perry that she was in contempt of Court and 19 that she was going to jail. It was only at that time that 20 Mrs. Perry inquired of JUDGE McCARTNEY as to "What did I do?"
21 JUDGE McCARTNEY replied, "For what you said." Mrs. Perry then
22 replied, "OK, then I apologize." JUDGE McCARTNEY at said time
23 immediately released her from the contempt. After releasing
24 Mrs. Perry from the contempt, JUDGE McCARTNEY recessed and 25 went to see Mrs. Nadine Waymire, the first assistant to the 26 Municipal Court Clerk of the County of San Bernardino and 27 obtained an assurance of the immediate replacement of 28 Mrs. Perry. After obtaining such assurance, JUDGE McCARTNEY

1 did reenter the Courtroom to reconvene said Court proceedings
2 and also at which time JUDGE McCARTNEY directed Mrs. Perry to 3 leave the Courtroom. JUDGE McCARTNEY then continued the Court
4 proceedings with a new clerk.

5

12 clerk immediately.

13 B. That he did advise her that he would not allow "my 14 Court Clerk to interrupt me while I was finding someone in 15 contempt."

16 C. That he did want another Court Clerk "right 17 now."

18 That aside from said express admissions,
19 JUDGE McCARTNEY denies generally and specifically each and
20 every allegation contained therein.

14 other people do."

15 C. In the afternoon session after a supplemental

18 'The Honorable Judge James J. McCartney'."

1 filed by Mr. Barnett and JUDGE McCARTNEY stated to Mr. Barnett
2 as follows: "Sir, would you be kind enough to tell Mr. Ward
3 that I received other documents-I have never received legal
4 documents that didn't say at the title, you know. I call you
5 'counselor'. I think it's a matter of common courtesy to put 6 'The Honorable Judge James J. McCartney'. Do you think that 7 it's in good taste?" To which Mr. Barnett stated, "That was an 8 oversight, and I apologize." The balance of the transcript
9 consisted of 29 pages and has to do with the propriety of filing
10 of the Affidavit of Prejudice in this particular instance.
11 Mr. Barnett was given sufficient time (until November 23, 1971)
